Be a partner of EFSCW

The European Foundation for Street Children Worldwide as a European advocacy, lobbying and networking platform disposes of a highly performing European- and worldwide partnership structure consisting of well-established, strong and competent partner organisations.

Your organisation can also become a partner and profit from the advantages we offer if you:

- are a not-for-profit and a non-governmental organisation
- are an academic or research institution dealing with issues of child protection and youth
- are committed to the cause of protection of rights and of the life situation of excluded children or particularly of street children
- are committed to a social purpose
- support the mission and objectives of EFSCW
- agree with the EFSCW statutes as a whole. <http://www.enscw.org/documents/Statutes-adopted%20by%20Board%20040715%20VersRooz310804.pdf>

EFSCW offers the following services:

1. Early information about relevant EU policy and funding developments in the child protection and social affairs area
2. Advocacy and lobbying contacts in the European institutions and with other social NGOs
3. Efficient networking across all European Member States and beyond on all matters of policy for the protection of excluded children
4. Highly performing internet-based research on all EU assistance programmes relevant to your project work and funding
5. A highly performing database on all relevant publications and EU documents concerning children at risk
6. Partnership connections of joint applications on EU-funded projects
7. Preferential tariff of only 75% of the conference and seminar participation fee of EFSCW. <http://www.enscw.org/documents/EFSCW%20Conference%20&%20Seminar%20Programme%202005.pdf>

The partnership fee is 280 € a year. For smaller NGOs specific tariffs can be agreed. The partnership fee will cover a full year as and from the date the payment has been made. Please note that the fee paid by a partner will not be refunded by the EFSCW in case of withdrawal before the partnership expiry date.
